- ▶ Competition Law Guidelines were formally adopted by CONCAWE's Board of Directors in 2007. These guidelines provide guidance related to anti-competitive actions and competition law to those attending and participating in CONCAWE meetings and activities.
- ▶ This guidance is intended to complement guidance that may already be provided by Member Companies to their employees regarding their participation in industry association activities and external conferences.
- ▶ DO LIMIT discussions only to the agenda topics.
- ▶ DO APPLY the same standards of business conduct at social gatherings with competitors as you would at CONCAWE business meetings.
- ▶ DO NOT DISCUSS individual company or industry prices, price changes or margins for products; future business plans for the design, production, distribution or marketing of specific products; any matters related to actual or potential customers or suppliers.
- ▶ DO NOT MAKE any agreement or take a decision to limit the quality of competition or research.
